The Safety Car in Portland and Tacoma
OUT of 414 cars operated in Portland, 83 are operated by one-man control. Cars are of the single and double-truck type.
These cars are run on downtown streets, which are in many cases only 60 feet wide while the automobile traffic is far more congested than in Victoria. Under such conditions, the safety car is giving excellent service.
The conditions for safety car operation in Portland are as severe as can be found anywhere. There is nothing in Victoria so severe.

IN TACOMA, the street railway operates 126 cars daily. Out of this number 90 are safety cars of the single and double-truck type.
The company is rapidly changing all its cars to safety cars.
Some of the Tacoma cars weigh as much as 27 tons—as much as our interurban cars, yet they are successfully operated as safety cars.
The safety car is inevitable because it means better service to the public than can be given with two-man cars.

SAYS BELAND ASKED TO ACT
Quebec Chronicle Makes Statement About Versailles Conference
Quebec, Nov. 21.—In connection with complaints said to have been made by Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, Hon. H. S. Beland and other leading Liberals in this province, that the Government's lack of friendship for Quebec is proved by its failure to name French-Canadians as representatives of Canada at the peace conference or as members of Federal commissions. The Quebec Chronicle publishes what is styled a bit of hitherto unwritten history.
The Quebec paper asserts that it has reliable authority for the statement that Dr. Beland himself was asked if he would like to act as one of the Canadian representatives with Sir Robert Borden at the peace conference. According to this information, the Chronicle claims that Dr. Beland first appeared to be gratified at the invitation, but explained that before reaching a decision he would have to consult his chief.
After having seen Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the member for Beauce declined to act, and it was for this reason that there was no French-Canadian at the peace conference. The Chronicle contends.
The Chronicle's informant states he is in a position to establish the accuracy of this fact if necessary.

REPLY WILL BE SENT TO BERLIN
Reparations Commission Will Call For Payment
Berlin, Nov. 21.—A communication handed to the Reparations Commission by Dr. Wirth, the German Chancellor, telling of the German Government's willingness to seek foreign credits required to meet the January reparations payment to the Allies, has been received by the public as confirmation of the belief popularly held that the Government possesses no illusions as regards its ability to secure a period of grace in which to meet its obligations. The Commission left Saturday for Paris without answering the communication, but in official quarters the belief is expressed that a reply will be forthcoming from Paris.
Although the heads of the Foreign Office are reported to have made strong efforts to impress the members of the Commission with the international and external effects of a forced entry by Germany into the foreign money markets, it is asserted that the Commissioners have declined to suggest any measures of relief for the country.
Paper Money.
The Reichbank statement for the week of November 19, which was published on the eve of the departure of the Reparations Commission, announced the addition of 2,569,999 marks in new paper to the national currency, bringing the total to more than 12,000,000 marks, of which 7,000,000,000 is in loan bank notes. The present heavy output of fresh paper money has been all the more conspicuous as it occurred in the mid-month period. Speculation has been stimulated as to the total at the close of the year.
Postponement.
Berlin, Nov. 21.—Future installments of German reparations may be postponed after those due in January and February are paid, it is alleged. "Convinced of Germany's sincerity," it was intimated semi-officially, "a final conference between Chancellor Wirth and members of the Reparations Commission.

He asked the Comox residents to have sympathy with them in their fishery troubles, and proceeded to Stevens wrote from Ottawa, that under the new regulations no more licenses would be issued to any naturalized British subjects of Asiatic origin; but hundreds and thousands of licenses were issued to Japanese since then. The Dominion Government was accepting the provincial voters' list in everything but granting the vote to the Japanese who fought overseas. He did not see how Mr. Clements could hope to avoid responsibility for that. He was responsible for putting these votes on the list, just

ING the Conservatives for this and that to draw the attention of the people away from the vital question of the tariff. He said the people should not be taken in by the planks of the Liberal platform. A few questions were asked the speaker at the close of his remarks, but there was little or no heckling to speak of, and the chairman called for a vote of thanks to the speakers, which was accorded heartily.

ORIENTAL ISSUE

Liberal Candidate is Well Received at Duncan

Duncan, Nov. 21.—T. B. Booth, Liberal candidate for the Federal riding of Nanaimo, gave a practical and forceful address to a good sized meeting in the Duncan Opera House on Friday evening last. About 100 men and several ladies attended, in spite of counter attractions.

Alex. Herd, of the local Liberal organization, was chairman, and W. Marchant, of Victoria, spoke on the tariff. To the farmer it meant that his goods had to compete in the open markets of the world and what he bought had to have an iniquitous tariff added to its cost. For this reason all farmers were against a high tariff. "Every article of clothing cost about 50 per cent. more owing to the present tariff. The speaker explained clearly how this percentage was made up.

The gross extravagance and mismanagement of the Government owned railways was contrasted with the splendidly managed C. P. R. by the speaker.

The Government owned lines were debauched to serve every purpose. The speaker strongly condemned the Cabinet Ministers who were directors or had large interests in companies which took large contracts from the Government. Several instances were cited. Mismanagement of the natural resources—coal, lumber, fish—the lack of the Government to grasp the situation when the war was over and the country had boundless sympathy with returned men, and the Government spent large sums of money on practically useless works in order to give employment, were touched upon. The Government should have given employment by bringing land under cultivation, by evolving new industries that would have given permanent employment. Vocational training had not been adequate, he claimed. B. C. with its illimitable resources of mine, forest and sea could accomplish anything if the fetters of commerce were removed.

The scandals around the profiteers and the scandals around the railway management should not be allowed to drop, he declared.

Mr. Booth was well received and listened to with the greatest attention. There were no interruptions. Nanaimo riding has an area of 5,900 square miles, a population of 60,000 and a voting list of 22,000. Every occupation and all the industries of the province are to be made for the prosperity of Canada are here, he declared. The census showed a decrease in the population of the manufacturing centres of Ontario and an increase in the Western Provinces. When a redistribution bill is brought in there will be twenty-five more members in the West and ten to a dozen less in the East. Meighen thought it well to go to the country on the old list. "Win the war" had been the cry when the Meighen Government went in, the speaker said.

No one can get at exact figures for the annual deficit of these railways, but $100,000,000 a year is the estimate, Mr. Booth pointed out.

He claimed that the Meighen Government is dominated by Eastern Canadian manufacturers and controlled by corporations. He believed in the protection that protects masses and all as classes, not one that makes rich richer and the poor poorer.

Oriental Issue.

The Oriental menace in British Columbia was dealt with in figures that were most alarming. The Borden Government in 1913 passed an Act forbidding any Province from passing legislation against Japanese. If Australia can pass anti-Asiatic laws why not Canada? He contended. Freight rates going East are double of those going West. A Vancouver manufacturer finds it cheaper to ship by Panama to Montreal and try Winnipeg rather than send direct to Winnipeg. There were other cases of the government-helped East discriminating against the West. Persons by Mr. Booth said he was in favor of complete free trade within the Empire.

The manufacturing interests of Eastern Canada no more love the British manufacturer than they do the American. They say free trade with the United States would mean annexation. Why do they not advocate free trade with England and have closer imperial relations? he declared. Four weeks ago the Meighen Government raised the postage to Britain to four cents, but the United States still has the three-cent postage, he pointed out.

The employment of Chinamen on the Government railroads while white men are idle, the use of American oil on Government railroads while Nanaimo coal miners work half time, buying American piles for Thetis Island wharf, while standing timber was within a few feet and the crooning plant of Vancouver idle, were among the anti-British acts of the Meighen Government which claimed to be so patriotic, he observed.

Reckless spending in the Yukon, overloading civil service and other extravagances were cited. Mr. Booth touched upon Mr. Dickie's record during the three sessions 1906, 1907 and 1909, when he sat in the Provincial Parliament. He stated that Mr. Dickie had never moved a resolution nor spoke in the House, being known as "the silent member." He had voted against a motion to prevent Chinese and Japanese from working on Government contracts. When the bill in favor of an eight-hour day in metalliferous mines was put Mr. Dickie was absent, though not far away, Mr. Booth stated.

In case a company subsidies a bill was brought in to make the contractor liable for the wages of the employees and Mr. Dickie voted against it, the speaker said. In 1902 a bill was put asking Ottawa to pass legislation to prohibit Chinese and Japanese from entering. Mr. Dickie voted against it. Mr. Dickie in the same session voted against female suffrage. In all his voting he had been against the working man, the candidate asserted.

Mr. Booth spoke exceedingly well, and at his next meeting should have a very large crowd.

T. B. Booth Speaks on Matter in Nanaimo Address

In the course of his speech at Nanaimo last week, T. B. Booth, Liberal candidate, said: Mr. Dickie could not expect endorsement from any section of the Nanaimo Federal riding. No section had received anything from the Government which entitled it to any recognition whatever. Nanaimo had the Farmers' Landing rebuilt but this was constructed in Victoria and towed to Nanaimo while Nanaimo carpenters were looking for work; Ladysmith had a wharf built which was built by a Vancouver contractor who employed Vancouver men; Esquimalt had a $50,000 repair job on the Arizona sent to Tacoma, the navy yard closed and the contract for the dry-dock awarded to an Ottawa contractor, and outside men employed, while the Gulf Islands had no adequate system of transportation. But Mr. Dickie had also a record of his own which did not entitle him to any support, remarked the speaker, and in this connection Mr. Booth read from the records of the Provincial Legislature during the sessions of 1906-1907, during which period Mr. Dickie voted against an amendment proposed by Mr. McInnes that no Orientals be employed on contracts made by the government, voted against the granting of the vote to women in municipal elections, voted against an amendment proposed by Mr. Curtis that in return for assistance given by the Government to the E. and N. that the passenger rate be fixed at four cents per mile, voted in favor of a six months' hold being given to the Government by Mr. McInnes in the interests of labor, voted against an amendment proposed by Mr. McInnes that contractors be less work in order to give employment, and also voted against a resolution introduced by Mr. McInnes calling upon the Dominion Government to enact legislation restricting the entry of Chinese and Japanese into British Columbia.

Duty on Fuel Oil

The placing of an increased duty on fuel oil was also advocated by Mr. Booth as necessary to the prosperity of Vancouver Island. The speaker quoted figures to show that 360,121 barrels of fuel oil are imported into Canada from the United States every month valued at one million dollars. This amount of fuel oil is equivalent to 160,000 tons of coal or 4,000 tons per day. Were fuel oil replaced by coal it would mean the output of the mines on the island would be doubled; steady employment would be found, a reduction could be made in the price of coal to the consumer and in all, the speaker claimed, the elimination of fuel-oil-British Columbia in general and Vancouver Island in particular would benefit to the extent of $20,000,000 annually.

BASKETBALL WAS PLAYED AT DUNCAN

One Duncan Team Won; One Victoria Team Won

Duncan.—A large crowd attended the Agricultural Hall, Duncan, for the games between the First Presbyterian basketball team of Victoria and Duncan Seniors and the Presbyterian Intermediates and Duncan Intermediates.

Promptly at 8 o'clock Bruce Powell blew the whistle, and the game between the two teams started. In this game Duncan showed up well, scoring the first basket and having eight points in all before Victoria netted its first shot. Victoria lacked combination and the Duncan boys were all over them in all departments. Phillips at forward and Tait and Evans at guard were the mainstays of the Duncan team. Phillips scored twelve baskets and one free shot, and Bell and Forrest each one basket. The final score was 29 to 15 in favor of Duncan.

Seniors.

The second game, when the Seniors took the floor, quite different, and seemed an exhibition by Victoria of how the game should be played for the benefit of Duncan. Seemingly at will, Victoria could form a concerted rush, and with the whole team moving with machine-like precision score a basket. At half time the score stood 17 to 7 in favor of Victoria. The Duncan substitute B. McNichol for J. Diron and a slightly better fight was put up by Bob White, of Victoria, never seems to grow older, and plays even a better game than he did years ago, and with the whole team showing great speed and combination it says a good deal for the checking of the Duncan team that the score was not considerably higher. Little netted twelve baskets and one free shot, and White two baskets and one free shot for Victoria, and for Duncan Doc French net two baskets. A. Diron, B. McNichol, three, with two free shots. The final score was 32-49-16 in favor of the First Presbyterian Seniors, champions of British Columbia.

The line up: First Presbyterian Seniors—G. McKinnon, R. White, forwards; C. Little, Centre; W. Hudson and W. Forbes, Guards. Duncan Seniors—A. Diron and V. Tait, forwards; Doc French, Centre; A. Evans and J. Diron, Guards. B. McNichol, spare.

First Presbyterian Intermediates—G. Gosse and F. Macgregor, forwards; P. Brackenridge, Centre; A. Streeter and McCann, Guards.

Duncan Intermediates—E. Forrest and Philip Forrest, forwards; C. Bell, Centre; Evans and Tait, Guards.

Sale of Work.

The Women's Auxiliary to the G. W. V. A. held a very successful sale of work in St. John's Hall. The work stall was presided over by Mesdames Cunningham, Kennett and O. Smith; cooked food and sweets by Mrs. Owen and Mrs. Dinkeld, while the tea arrangements were in Mrs.

STILL DEADLOCKED.

Little news appears to have developed either to promise hope or presage failure for the Irish conference. For the time being the Prime Minister is faced with Sir James Craig's refusal to acquiesce in a Dominion status for the whole country.

Now that the conference has reached its present nebulous stage the suggestion arises as to whether it would not be possible for Mr. Lloyd George to leave the discussion of such details as will have to be disposed of in any case and take personal part in the Washington gathering.

OUT OF DATE.

In support of the Meighen candidates in Vancouver the advertising matter appearing in the daily press has included a long list of names of prominent citizens who have accepted, or are alleged to have accepted, the duties of an 'advisory committee' in the various constituencies.

THOSE CANTREEN PROFITS.

Although the wisdom of deciding the issue by a full ballot among the former members of the Canadian Expeditionary Force cannot be contested it seems a pity that a little more thought was not given to the nature of the questions which Canada's returned men are required to answer in order to agree upon the manner in which over two million dollars of canteen profits are to be distributed.

burying those who die in indigent circumstances; another whether memorial workshops shall be established along similar lines to those followed by the Red Cross Society in Victoria and other places.

Question one has a good deal of merit in it. Number two should never have been included because the State in any case must not be guilty of denying any former soldier a decent burial under all circumstances.

But the point that strikes us is the absence of a concerted effort on the part of the Dominion Government to obtain all the suggestions beforehand in order that a more intelligent set of questions with better promise could have been submitted.

REALLY UNUSUAL.

Those visitors who are with us for the first time may well have wondered if the behavior of the elements during the week end could be taken as altogether unusual or as just the sort of contradiction which exaggerated claims deserve.

GHANDI'S BOOMERANG.

As the time for the departure of the Prince of Wales for India drew nearer, and some of the pessimists who see the Empire on the point of collapse began to issue their doleful warning, this and other newspapers drew attention to the fact that if the royal tour was abandoned on account of what Mahatma Gandhi might evolve British rule would suffer because the fanatical native mind would be able to detect official weakness and the triumph of forces to which it had fallen prey.

fits of British rule and British institutions. The incident will be no advertisement for the real culprit.

NOTE AND COMMENT

On the third day of this month over twelve inches of rain fell at Swansons Bay in twenty-four hours. Our condoleances are extended to the people who live in that decidedly damp community.

British Labor in peaceful session represents a good deal of influence in the Motherland. Its resolution in favor of the Hughes proposals to limit armament will convey an appropriate volume of meaning to the British delegate now in Washington.

One newspaper in the United States came out during the week end with an eight column flare across its front page announcing that the British army had abandoned conscription.

According to The London Times the Soviet Government of Russia is about to appeal to the world's workers for one hundred million dollars.

BRIAND STATES HIS COUNTRY'S PLANS TO CUT DOWN HIS ARMY

about 200,000. Incidentally this spokesman recalled the fact that except for a short period during the war Britain's army had always been recruited on a strictly volunteer basis. And yet one United States paper came out with an eight-column heading printed in heavy type, announcing to an astonished public: "British army abandons conscription."

POLITICS. Speeches That Will Not Down. What Meighen Used to Preach. Even the Liberal Name Must Go. Public Ownership Inevitable? Making Out Our Own Bills. Why People Lose Their Votes.

There must be times, many times, when Mr. Meighen would give a big slice of the Conservative campaign fund if all records of his former speeches could be completely destroyed.

Here we have Mr. Meighen on the tariff, October 20, 1920, as quoted by The Manitoba Free Press: "I do not see how to find out what is necessary except by the most careful and thorough inquiry that can be made."

Again, on February 15 of this year: "The West is undoubtedly entitled under the census to from ten to twenty-five—one knows how many—seats in this Parliament. If this House is dissolved before redistribution that representation is denied."

At the head office of the National Liberal and Conservative party in Toronto somebody, working on the inside, scratched off the lettering on the window all the words in the party name except the last one, "Conservative."

So far the Government has submitted no plan to solve the railway problem except that of continued public operation, The Vancouver Province observes. So far the opposition has offered no other suggestion, except that Mr. Lemieux has endorsed the recommendation of Lord Shaugnessy, Mr. Mackenzie King following with the announcement that Mr. Lemieux spoke for himself and not for the party.

The whole business of railway transportation in Canada, the United States and Great Britain seems to be in a transition stage. Naturally the public pays attention to the views of the head of the one transcontinental system which has been able to make a steady return to its shareholders during the troubles of this century.

When a merchant wants to collect a debt he makes out and renders a bill. Before he can recover the amount due he must show that he has made proper demand for that amount. But this is not the Federal Government's idea of business. The Toronto Star remarks.

ally clauses staring him in the face if he should err. The Government should require nothing more from the citizen than a plain statement of his income and the exemptions to which he lays claim.

A lot of Montreal people will lose their votes in the Federal election simply because election officials have failed to advertise the places of registration properly.

Why should the electors have to exercise such searching vigilance to secure the right to vote? The Herald demands. It is an inalienable right and should not be subject to a last-hour scramble for those whose names have to be added to the lists.

The "Katzenjammer Kid" of Canadian politics is what one editor called Mr. King the other day. The reference, The Toronto Star suggests, is to the fire-crackers which are being put under Der Captain Meighen.

CANADA'S PENSION ACT LEADS IN ALLIED COUNTRIES. Act Not Perfect, But Best That Can Be Found, Says Lt.-Col. Margeson.

Lieut.-Col. J. W. Margeson, member of the Board of Pension Commissioners, in the course of a brief address to ex-service men and their dependents at the Trades and Labor Hall Saturday, outlined the position of the ex-service man and the dependent in the matter of pensions and insurance.

In response to a question it was stated that the pensions to war widows up to the substantive rank of lieutenant had been increased to a maximum of $720 a year, while the pension of the widow of a brigadier-general, he added, was $1,200.

Explanation of the proposals to dispose of the canteen funds were given by Col. Margeson, as follows: "The committee which has this matter in hand, composed of N. F. Parkinson, Deputy Minister of Soldier Civil Re-establishment, T. O. Cox, director of separate allowances and assigned pay; Captain W. P. Grant, manager of a department store in Ottawa; C. G. MacNeill, Dominion secretary of the W.V.A.; F. Marsh, Dominion secretary of the Grand Army of United Veterans; Captain Harry Colborne, secretary-treasurer of the Army and Navy Veterans in Canada, and myself have drafted ballots, containing four questions or pleas.

The four schemes set forth on the ballot, any one of which under the transferable vote to be taken, may take the whole $210,000,000, which is the present total of the canteen funds, are as follows: Scholarships for the children of ex-soldiers; burial for Canadian ex-soldiers who die in indigent circumstances; construction of memorial workshops; or the creation of a co-operative industrial enterprise in which every member of the Canadian Expeditionary Force will hold one share.

is to reduce the amount of payable pension. Colonel Margeson quoted the following figures for September to show that increases are the rule rather than decreases: 336 pensioners before medical boards received increases during the month of September, as compared with 152 reductions. EXTRA BOATS ARE NEEDED FOR CARGO IN ORIENT TRADE

Admiral Line Assured of an Additional Ship for December and January

Seattle, Nov. 21.—While eastbound cargo offerings in the Orient continue to be somewhat slack, the westbound offerings are demanding considerable cargo space, with the result that it has been found necessary to schedule at least four sailings a month for November, December and January by the Pacific Steamship Company.

In order to assure this frequency, the United States Shipping Board has assured the Admiral Line of an extra vessel in both December and January, though the nature of the contract for the ship, as well as the name of the vessels have not been announced.

L. I. Bates, foreign freight agent of the Admiral Line, declared that sufficient cargo offerings had been already booked to tax the capacity of at least four vessels, meaning that at least one additional ship would be required during each of the months to care for the business, as the present schedule of allocations provides but three vessels to this service.

The November schedule, which will be completed with the sailing of the Silver State on November 26, and the Wheatland Montana on November 28, also includes the Keystone State, which sailed November 5 and the Edridge. All these ships either have loaded full cargoes or are to be filled to capacity.

In December the steamship City of Spokane is to sail on December 7; the Pine Tree State December 19; an extra freighter, not yet named, on December 20, and the Westchee on December 24.

The extra freighter in December is quite likely to be the steamship West Cahokia or the steamship West Lewark, both of which shipping board vessels are to be tied up here in the next few weeks and will therefore be available.

The January schedule of the Admiral Line calls for the sailing of the Bay State, January 7; Keystone State, January 14; Edmore, January 15, and the extra freighter sought for that month on January 26.

GIANT HOMERIC IS ABOUT READY

Will Sail From Southampton For New York in February

The 35,000-ton liner Homeric, ex-Columbus, is expected to sail from Southampton for New York in the White Star service in a few weeks. Representatives of the company are now at Danzig arranging for the delivery by the German builders.

The Germans will deliver the ship completed in accordance with her original plans as provided in the peace treaty, but some time will be necessary to refit her for the White Star line. Her first sailing from Southampton has been tentatively set for February 22.

Much information has been made public regarding the ship, which a few years ago would have been counted a colossus. Indeed, before the building of the Olympic, the Homeric would have led the world's fleet in tonnage, as she registers 35,000 tons. She is now exceeded in Leithman, 54,000, Berengaria, 51,000, Olympic, 46,000 tons, Aquitania, 45,647.

The Homeric is 775 feet long and 87 feet wide. She has twin screws, driven by triple expansion engines of 30,000 horse power, and is expected to make an average speed of 20 knots. Her passenger capacity is 529 first class cabin, 487 second and 1,750 third. Her crew numbers 774. The latest addition to the White Star Line is a handsome ship, with large and lofty public rooms, and staterooms designed for luxurious comfort. There are 40 large staterooms on the promenade deck, and several suites, including one containing drawing room, breakfast room and two bedrooms, each with bath.

While the ship has all the luxurious equipment now found on the largest liners—such as palm garden and glass enclosed promenade decks—she has numerous novelties not found on most ships. They include a bath room in which electric rays take the place of water; a playroom for kiddies fitted with doll houses, hobby horses and many other delights; a typewriting room, fitted with machines for passenger's use; a shop where traveler's articles and varied novelties of two kinds are sold; a covered space for deck games in all weathers, such as tennis, shuffleboard and quoits; open fires in reading, writing, music and smoking rooms; electrically operated elevators for passengers; a very complete telephone system, with "central" office; a photographic dark room; and a novel ventilating system by which ozonized air can be pumped into the various rooms.

Jascha Heifetz

HIS tour of the West a record of triumph upon triumph—thousands hear him and crowds are turned away. Heifetz plays at the Royal Victoria Theatre on Monday, November 28.

Jascha Heifetz, supreme violinist of the generation, chooses for his accompaniment the great

Steinway Piano

It is with pleasure that we are able to announce the coming of Heifetz. Arriving, as he does, with the music critics of two continents praising his marvelous mastery of the violin, it is but natural that we should receive a request to have his chosen piano—the Steinway—in readiness for his concert on the 28th.

HEIFETZ—and a musical celebrities—instantly insist the great Steinway Piano be provided wherever they appear. The same musical quality recognized by Jascha Heifetz endears the name STEINWAY to countless homes of discrimination and refinement.

Argos Continue to Win; Beat Varsity

Despite Heavy Going and Slippery Ball Teams Played Wonderful Game in Elimination Series For Canadian Rugby Championship

Toronto, Nov. 21.—(By Canadian Press)—Piling up a lead of 11 points in the first period when they took advantage of the wind, Varsity backfield errors and the breaks of the game, the Argonauts, champions of the Interprovincial Union, defeated Varsity, winner in the intercollegiate circuit by a score of 29 to 14 at Varsity stadium on Saturday afternoon before 15,000 spectators.

SELKIRKS WON LONG OVERTIME STRUGGLE

Delegate Will Use Own Discretion on Amateur Question

B. C. A. A. U. Fails to Instruct Its Delegate How to Vote on Important Question at Annual Meeting of A. A. U. of C.; Bert Tennant to Be B. C. Representative; To Make Important Demands.

Vancouver, Nov. 21.—Bert Tennant will represent the B. C. A. A. U. at the annual meeting of the Canadian Amateur Athletic Union next month at Toronto, this selection having been made at a meeting of the provincial body on Saturday here. Delegate Dunn, of Victoria, will alternate if Tennant is unable to make the trip.

In addition to being selected as delegate, Tennant was also elected to the board of governors of the provincial body, vice A. Manson, of Victoria, who presented his resignation to the provincial body.

At the meeting of the Dominion body, British Columbia will fight for the next general annual meeting, and will insist that these gatherings be alternated between east west and middle dominion sections, in order that a greater interest be developed in amateur sport.

Want To Pay Referee. At the Dominion meeting the question of a referee being paid for his services and still be an amateur was discussed. The rule now is that he shall receive no money other than his expenses. The B. C. A. A. U. is in favor of giving the referee something for his services.

Another matter to be brought up at the Dominion meeting is that the following resolution passed at the annual meeting of the A. A. U. of C. at Ottawa in September, 1919, be rescinded:

That branches be permitted to re-instate for offences under Clause B, of the Amateur definition, on a two-thirds majority vote by the branch, and that such reinstatement be effective until confirmed or rejected by the national registration committee.

Up To Delegate. Another thing was that the clause of Rule 6 of the general rule of the A. A. U. of C., amended to read: "An athlete shall not lose his amateur status by competing with or against a professional in cricket, golf, indoor bowling, hockey, football, baseball and lacrosse, provided that this should not apply to athletes competing in college sports and providing that any affiliated Dominion or provincial body governing any of those games may restrict this privilege in any manner they wish."

This question was left for the delegate to use his own discretion when voting.

Want One Sport.

One of the biggest proposals that the delegate was instructed to put before the meeting was that the next year either the wrestling, boxing, or field and track championships be held in British Columbia.

At Saturday's meeting it was also decided that the British Columbia championships for wrestling and boxing be held by the Victoria board of the B. C. A. A. U., and the Vancouver board have the track and field championships.

University Secures Honor For First Time in 20 Years; Has Been Big Year

Chicago, Nov. 21.—The Western Conference Football zone closed on Saturday with the University of Iowa the star defender for the first time in twenty years.

Won Five Games.

Iowa has won five games, losing none. Ohio State and Chicago won four and lost one each. Wisconsin won three, lost one and tied one. Michigan won two, lost one and tied one. Indiana won one and lost two. Minnesota won two and lost four.

Purdue and Illinois each won one game and lost four. Northwestern came north with Stanford last year. As a matter of fact Templeton was not among those present, but Johnson's work compared very favorably with Templeton's when the latter did visit Vancouver two years ago.

Vancouver, Nov. 21.—Vancouver triumphed over Victoria's ruggers Saturday in the second McKeechne Cup match of the 1921-22 season. The score, 20 points to 6, just about marks the superiority of the champions over the invaders.

Liverpool Hurdles Burnley and Leads Wanderers Secure A Narrow Victory

WANDERERS SECURE A NARROW VICTORY

Old Boys, Although Short of Men, Played Steady Game, Losing by 3-0

Despite the cold and the frozen ground the Old Boys and Wanderers went through a merry hour and a half's play at Mount Talmie on Saturday afternoon in an intermediate rugby fixture. The Wanderers eventually obtained the count when Neurotos scored a try in the first half. This was the only score of the game, which ended 3-0.

The Old Boys took the field minus several of their regular players, but despite the handicap managed to hold the Wanderers well in hand. The play for the most part was in the collegians' territory, but their defence was steady and their three-quarter backs were able to relieve the pressure quite often by fast runs up the field. But the ball came back quickly and the Old Boys were forced to work hard.

Mr. Loveland refereed.

New Leaders Have Been Very Consistent in First Division—Burnley and Sunderland Tie for Second Place—Attendances Remain as High as Ever

London, Nov. 21.—(Canadian Press Cable)—As a result of the fine win over Middleboro Saturday by a score of 4 to 0, Liverpool goes to the top of the first division in the English soccer league, and Burnley, which was dispossessed of the leadership, is tied for second place with Sunderland.

The new division leaders have been most consistent, having lost only one match.

There have been few changes at the other end of the table, with West Arsenal is back again with West Bromwich among the fatal two from which Cardiff at last emerges.

Dramatic Finish.

The most dramatic of football yet was witnessed by spectators at the Chelsea-Bradford City game, where the home team, in the last minute of play, converted an apparently drawn match into a victory by a great goal from a penalty kick by Howard Baker, the goalkeeper.

Curiously enough, Baker's erratic kicking recently has been the subject of such comment.

Attendance Still High.

The attendance at the various matches continues high as usual, the highest yesterday being at Tottenham where 45,000 were present, closely followed at Liverpool with 44,000.

Barnsley continues to head the second division, despite the fact that they have not scored a goal in the last five matches.

Cambridge took the field at Blackheath yesterday and though their men were tired as the result of their fourth match in eight days, they defeated Blackheath, 17 to 6.

First Division. Wests won by default from Yarrows. Thistles 4; Sons of England, 2. Metropolis 3; Garrison, 1.

Second Division. Sons of Canada, 3; Sons of England, 1. C. P. R.; Wilson's United, 0. Junion Division. Wests, 3; Gorge, 0.

Playing conditions were adverse to good football on Saturday and added to this was the fact that few of the teams were at full strength. Yarrows could not muster a team and the Wests took the points by default.

The Garrison were outclassed by the Metropolitans for the fact that they fielded a crippled team. The Sons of England could only turn out ten men and as a result proved the first victims of the Thistles. The Sons did not retain their place through the fact that the Garrison and Yarrows both dropped points.

The Sons tried hard to stave off defeat despite the fact that they were minus one man. They held the Thistles even in the first half but the Scot's odd man began to tell in the final period and they scored three goals to the Sons one. Davies and Small did the scoring for the Sons while George Allen shot two. Howden one and Sandison one for the Thistles.

Mets Shot Well.

The Mets found little opposition from the Garrison and ran in nine goals to the Garrison's one. This was the second heaviest score of the season. Four of the Tommie's regulars were in hospital and the substitutes played hard but they were not match for the Mets. Southern scored four goals for last year's champions, while Merfield scored three and Totty two. Merfield performed the hat trick in the second half in about three minutes. Cummings, the Garrison's fast outside right, scored the only goal for his side.

The teams were as follows: Metropolis—Leeming; McKenzie and Church; Wales, English and Pat-

BET THIS GOLFER CARRIES SMILES

Scammell Drives Golf Ball Quarter of a Mile; Longest on Record

New York, Nov. 21.—Every golfer experiences a certain amount of satisfaction when he lays an approach shot dead and there is bound to be a momentary thrill as the forty-foot putt from the green's edge disappears into the bottom of the cup, yet those sensations must pale to insignificance as compared with the feeling of felicity earned recently by Scott Scammell of Trenton. Just imagine driving a ball a quarter of a mile!

YALE'S UPSET CAME AS A BIG SURPRISE

55,000 Fans Watched Crimson Athletes Win Great Victory

Boston, Nov. 21.—Harvard upset the football world on Saturday. With 55,000 goggle-eyed, leather-lugged devotees of the gridiron, passtime looking on the crimson steam roller succeeded in getting up enough steam to flatten out the undefeated Yale Bulldogs by a score of 10 to 3, registering a glorious victory that came like a bolt from a clear sky.

Harvard Showed Great Dash and Had Far Best of Annual Rugby Game

Yale went into the game on Saturday a strong favorite to win, but expecting a stubborn fight, Harvard bulldozed the Bulldogs in one of the most grimly-fought games the two schools have played, and the driving ability of George Owen and his brother players in the Crimson backfield told the tale.

Yale Was Favored.

Yale scored first. With dashing confidence born of an unbroken string of victories, the Bulldogs rushed Harvard from the start and with the initial period about two-thirds gone, worked the ball to the Crimson twelve-yard line. In a one run of twenty-nine yards by Aldrich, who was Yale's outstanding star. Finding Harvard's forwards growing stubborn, Adams dropped the ball to Owen, and he, in the third down, booted a perfect drop kick between Harvard's goal posts.

MR. KING STATES
WERE EMPLOYED

Confusion Between Rockefeller Foundation and Rockefeller Interests

Applied Industrial Knowledge to Benefit of Empire

The attack on the war record of Hon. W. L. Mackenzie King by Hon. H. H. Stevens on Friday, at the meeting here, makes appropriate the republication of the speech in the House of Commons, on a question of privilege, by Mr. King, the Liberal Leader, when he took up the points of an attack delivered at a luncheon meeting in Montreal in April, 1920.

First of all, there is the statement that I have resided in the United States for seven years in this city of Ottawa, and have never during that time had my place of residence anywhere else in the Dominion. I have resided in the Roxborough Apartments in this city, and any member of this House who inquires of the Imperial War Office, the proprietors of the Roxborough, will find that at no time during the war or since have I cancelled my lease or even temporarily withdrawn my name from the apartment which I occupy.

Now, Sir, let me explain the nature of my relationship to the Rockefeller Foundation. First of all, the Foundation is not in any sense of the word a business or commercial enterprise. It is a philanthropic organization chartered under the laws of the State of New York in the year 1913. As described in the Act of Incorporation, it is a body corporate for the purpose of receiving and maintaining a fund or funds for the relief of the needy and the promotion thereof to promote the well-being of mankind throughout the world.

My duties in connection with the Rockefeller Foundation were to make a study of the problem of industrial relations with a view to ascertaining if it was possible to contribute in any way toward the solution of that intricate and world wide problem. I was no more than an employee of the Rockefeller interests, or of any Standard Oil interest, in my association with the Rockefeller Foundation.

I was no more than an employee of the Rockefeller interests, or of any Standard Oil interest, in my association with the Rockefeller Foundation.

CATARRH
OF THE STOMACH
FOR EIGHT YEARS

The cause of this trouble is the fermentation of food in the stomach which generates a gas that is very frequently belched up. There is also a rumbling of the bowels and a discharge of gas therefrom, there is constant retching, and the meals are frequently vomited. There is a burning pain in the stomach, the appetite is rickety, the tongue coated, the breath bad, constipation is generally present and the sufferer becomes weak, nervous, depressed and exceedingly miserable.

Mrs. Agnes Gallant, Rose, Mines, N. S., writes: "I had been a great sufferer for eight years from catarrh of the stomach. I tried several so-called remedies without relief until a friend advised me to try Milburn's Laxative Pills, which I did and four pills completely relieved me. That was six years ago and I have had no return of my old trouble."

the employ of the late Andrew Carnegie, or than teachers and professors who are the recipients of pensions from the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching can be said to be related to any steel trust or corporation.

Within the last few months, as an expression of interest on the part of the Rockefeller Foundation made a gift of $5,000,000 to be used in research in connection with the medical departments. The young men or professors who study under the benefits of this particular gift were appointed by the Foundation to make a study of this question of industrial relations.

What Should Be Done. That was the situation when the war came on. I had then to decide, just as every other man in this country had, under existing circumstances, what I should do. I decided to continue my work with the Rockefeller Foundation, and the work which I had undertaken, whether I should undertake them in relation to the problems which were growing out of the war.

As hon. gentlemen know, the war had succeeded very far before the period of reconstruction. The Government of the United States appointed a National War Labor Board, and the Government of Canada—the present Government—appointed the Reconstruction and Development Committee of the Cabinet.

My objection to the Rockefeller Foundation had been made, amongst other reasons, because of the circumstances that during a number of years I had held a position in the Department of Labor of this country as deputy minister of the department, and subsequently as minister, and during that time had had considerable to do, at first hand, and in a practical way with industrial problems.

My duties in connection with the Rockefeller Foundation were to make a study of the problem of industrial relations with a view to ascertaining if it was possible to contribute in any way toward the solution of that intricate and world wide problem. I was no more than an employee of the Rockefeller interests, or of any Standard Oil interest, in my association with the Rockefeller Foundation.

Colorado at the time I did so because there had been a situation there very much in the nature of an industrial civil war—was the most serious industrial situation on this continent. I went of my own volition, under direction or suggestion from no one. I had been given a perfectly free hand by the Rockefeller Foundation to do what I thought best in the way of carrying out the work which the trustees of the Foundation had given me the opportunity to perform.

The resignation of Mrs. Smith came as a surprise to Premier Oliver and members of the cabinet. For some time she had been heard to murmur that she was making up her mind to take some action, but they discounted the rumour.

Active Campaign for Her. The Premier said this afternoon that he had no comment to make on the resignation. He said he expects to have an interview with her and may have something to say then. Shortley said Mrs. Smith was given cabinet rank at the last session of the Legislature, because of the fact that women voters were looking to her as a result of the sweeping majority accorded her at the last election.

CHINESE PROSECUTED. Yuen, charged with operating a grocery store after hours on November 14 was fined $50 and $250 costs of the city court today. The case was defended by J. S. Brandon, who will also appear for six other Chinese merchants similarly charged.

Wants To Be Free. Mrs. Smith declared she sympathized with the Government in the tremendous tasks before them, but felt she could no longer remain inactive in the matter of criticism and advice and continue to represent the largest single group of voters in the Province.

Says Liquor Control Board

G. O. Buchanan, President, and W. G. W. Fortune, Secretary of the British Columbia Prohibition Association, have addressed the following letter to Premier Oliver and members of the provincial executive council.

The Government is supplied to a nominal membership by the glass as well as in large quantities. These clubs perpetuating the worst evils of the bar.

The convention has also evidence before it that at the present session of the Legislature it is to be made for amendments to the act providing for:

(a) "The open sale and supply to the public in hotels and cafes, of beer and light wines."

There were present 68 duly accredited delegates. After consideration of the operation of the law, which is now in force in this province, governing the liquor traffic, the convention instructed its executive to communicate the following resolution to the members of the provincial executive.

That this convention refrains from making any suggestions regarding the Government Liquor Act as far as it has been framed, and is being administered, in compliance with the terms of the referendum, which terms were, that liquor should be sold by the Government and under the Government control, in sealed packages.

That the incorporation and operation of the system of Government sale is in a mental stage. The people are entitled to an opportunity of observation of its working. If beer is sold freely, its effects will be indistinguishable from the effects of whisky.

Wherever legal sale exists, illicit sale will first shelter and concealment, and what is worst of all, the fatal taste for alcoholic drinks and the habit of its use will grow and spread.

We stand, as always, for the total destruction of the traffic. We declare that alcohol is neither food nor medicine, nor healthful stimulant. It is a tree, the fruit of which is disease, poverty and death.

We believe that a majority of the people in the province are total abstainers, that they voted for the clause of the ballot which promised Government control and not for Government sale.

We believe that the control board has already gone far beyond the mandate of the people, and that these and any further variations from the terms of the plebiscite will be strongly disapproved by the electorate.

Not for Women Only
To millions it is bringing whiter teeth

This new way of teeth-cleaning appeals to women. It brings them prettier teeth. But men also enjoy it, and children must use it to properly clean their teeth.

Millions now use it, largely by dental advice. The glowing teeth you see everywhere now show the results of its use.

Everyone needs it, as this simple test will show. See the results it brings in ten days and decide that for yourself.

You must fight film. Your teeth are coated with a viscous film. You can feel it with your tongue. It clings to teeth, gets between the teeth and stays.

Free
All This Week

This 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent. Simply present the coupon. This test will prove a delightful revelation. It will show you the way which millions have found to whiter, cleaner, safer teeth.

It multiplies the alkalinity of the saliva. That is Nature's neutralizer of the acids which attack the teeth. It combats the film wherever it adheres. It leaves the teeth so highly polished that film cannot easily cling. Pepsin is also included.

The results are not uncertain. You can see and feel them. Some are almost instant. A ten-day test is most convincing.

Present the coupon for a 10-Day Tube. Note how clean the teeth feel after using. Mark the absence of the viscous film. See how teeth whiten as the film-costs disappear. Watch the other good effects.

To millions this test has proved a revelation. It has shown them the way to prettier teeth, to cleaner, safer teeth. One does not return to the old ways when he sees what this new way does.

The delightful results. One conspicuous effect is to beautify the teeth. Another is a feeling of cleanliness. Men who smoke will see great changes. It is film that absorbs tobacco stains.

1700-Can. Present this coupon, with your name and address filled in, to any store named. It is good for a 10-Day Tube of Pepsodent.

"SNOWBIRD" IS THRILLING PICTURE

Royal Will Be Occupied With Goldwyn Photoplay

"Snowbird," by the author of "The Branding Iron," is the second novel by Katherine Newlin Burt to be made into a photoplay by Goldwyn under the directorial guidance of Reginald Barker. It is a stirring love story of the Canadian Northwest, with an unusual plot in which a fugitive criminal is regenerated by a deep emotional experience.

When "Snowbird" is shown at the Royal Victoria Theatre for six days, commencing to-day, Russell Simpson will be seen in a role quite different from the characterizations in "The Branding Iron," "Bunty Pulls the Strings" and "Godless Men" in all of which his splendid acting has called for the highest praise. In the cast with him are Cullen Landis, Pauline Starke and Mary Alden, besides a group of native Canadian frontiersmen who furnish a background of realism.

"Snowbird" was made in and about the town of Banff, in Northwest Canada, where the actors and actresses lived for weeks in several suits of woolen clothes. It is a typical Reginald Barker production, replete with strong emotional scenes and filled with outdoor views of arresting beauty.

In addition to the feature the musical part of the programme has been well looked after. Mrs. Douglas McCannan the well-known Victoria singer has been engaged after her successful engagement at the Coliseum in Seattle, and will sing "I Love You So" from Chu Chin Chow, and the "Wimms From the South." A good comedy and a scenic make up the balance of a good programme.

"LADIES MUST LIVE" ADAPTED FOR SCREEN

Dominion Will Present Beautiful Story

In the screen world, until the death of George Loane Tucker, the name of the producer of "The Miracle Man," was a steadily increasing power. It stood for the best the screen has to offer in the way of beautiful, massive, and uplifting picture offerings. That another picture which bears the stamp of his genius, the last he made, should be released by Paramount, is an event of supreme importance not only to the motion picture world, but to Paramount exhibitors themselves.

AMUSEMENTS TO-DAY

- Royal—"Snowbird."
- Dominion—"Ladies Must Live."
- Capitol—"Don't Call Me Little Girl."
- Variety—"Through the Back Door."
- Columbia—"A Modern Salome."
- Princess—"The Misleading Lady."

This picture is "Ladies Must Live," based on the novel of the same name by Alice Duer Miller, and, as it strikes a vital note in the daily lives of men and women, it seems certain that it will prove a business-pulling magnet not only to a great predecessor, "The Miracle Man."

George Loane Tucker was born and reared in Chicago and after leaving the University of Chicago he entered the service of a Western railroad company. A friend suggested the stage and he joined a road show. The success of a picture in public fancy attracted him and he decided to do something big, even if it bankrupted him. So the first American million-dollar picture, "Traffic in Souls," a powerful psychological appeal, was produced. He then went to London, where he affiliated himself with great authors such as Hall Caine and Anthony Hope, and brought out "Rupert of Hentzau," "The Christian," "The Prisoner of Zenda," "The Manxman" and other screen masterpieces. On his return to this country, he produced "The Cinderella Man," one of the biggest hits of the 1917-18 season, and his first production under his own management was "Virtuous Wives," which proved an enormous success. Then he produced "The Miracle Man," by far his biggest presentation up to that time. Its success prompted him to produce another and he began work on "Ladies Must Live." Illness interrupted him frequently, but before the hand of death removed him, he saw the finished picture, made several vital suggestions looking to its improvement. The result is a photoplay of rare artistry and it will keep Mr. Tucker's memory alive for many a day.

Alice Duer Miller is one of the most prominent novelists and magazine writers of fiction in the country. She has written many best sellers, some of which have been pictured. Her story, "Ladies Must Live," which appeared in The Saturday Evening Post, proved to be excellent material for the screen and none of its literary charm and beauty has been lost in the adaptation which was made by Mr. Tucker himself.

POPULAR FAVORITE AT THE CAPITOL

Mary Miles Minter in Attractive Role

Is real beauty shackled by style? Are women gradually changing in figure and appearance so that modern ways of dressing are necessary to bring out their complete beauty? Or is feminine pulchritude an undying thing—unaltered by the changing fashions?

It is an interesting argument. There are many who contend that our ideas of beauty have changed so much that the belle of fifty years ago would be counted wholly unattractive to-day, just as to-day's fairest maids would have shocked and disgusted the connoisseurs of yesterday.

However, that may be, an opportunity to judge the merits of the controversy will be presented at the Capitol this week, when Mary Miles Minter will appear in "Don't Call Me Little Girl," her latest Hearst picture, adapted from the famous Billie Burke stage success, "Jerry."

One of the most interesting features of the production is the appearance in one scene of the youthful star in a hoop-skirt costume of the sixties, in voluminous ruffled skirts of beflowered silk and a saucy little hat standing atop a mountainous hair-dress. Thus attired, Miss Minter deals blow to those who feel that the modern girl must wear the present-day scanty attire to be attractive. For Miss Minter is as delicately delightful as a figure direct from a Watteau painting.

"Don't Call Me Little Girl" is a lively comedy of modern life dealing with the incorrigible misbehavior of a young man who, at the age of eighteen, who sets about to solve her own matrimonial problems, those of her aunt, grown spinsterish far too soon, and her widowed mother. Joseph Henabery, who directed Roscoe Arbuckle in his greatest recent successes, has splendidly preserved the original flavor of the famous stage play. Photography is by Faxon Dean, who has been responsible for the excellent effects of all recent Mary Miles Minter productions.

In addition, Victoria's most popular violinist, Miss Mary Izard, will be heard in violin solos. Miss Izard has just returned from her Eastern tour on the Capitol Theatre Circuit, and no doubt Victoria audiences will give her a hearty welcome.

William Duncan, the famous Vitagraph actor-director, has asked his life a hundred different ways since he became a screen star. In his latest production entitled "No Defense," he has found a new way of getting into extreme peril—climbing a mountain cliff. The script "No Defense" required that the hero escape his pursuers by fleeing to the wild, and Director Duncan determined not to spare Actor Duncan one whit. He chose a rocky cliff that had never been scaled before and aided only by one tenuous rope, he made his way to the top. The only accident was when a piece of rock crumbled under Duncan's foot, causing him to swing heavily against the side of the cliff. A large slice of skin was rubbed off the star's shoulder as a result of the impact.

GOLDWYN Presents REGINALD BARKER'S production of

A Story You'll Never Forget

A young actress, member of a troupe stranded in the snow country, wanders off alone and loses the trail.

Blinded by the unbearable flaming glare reflected in agonizing flashes from the snow, she falls, helpless, into a drift, and after a night of horror is rescued by a giant of a man with a twisted, scarred face.

Then begins as strange and stirring a drama as the camera has ever recorded. In a little cabin, hidden from the world by a ring of towering mountains, love is born and two men and two women come to the turning points of their lives.

Bigger and better than "The Branding Iron," this epic of the snows will give you the thrill of a lifetime.

MARY PICKFORD NOW AT VARIETY

Wonderful Scenic Features in Pickford Film

From a photographic standpoint, great variety will be offered in Mary Pickford's next production, entitled "Through the Back Door," than in anything this star has ever offered to theatre patrons. This production will be featured at the Variety Theatre, beginning to-day and all week.

The story opens with colorful scenes at the pleasure resort of Ostend as it was in the gala days of 1903. Then farm scenes in Belgium are shown, wherein are featured the picturesque peasant costumes, the pastoral scenes and the quaint architecture that have made this kingdom famed for its rural beauty. The scene then shifts to the modern castles of the rich on Long Island, and here we glimpse modern marvelous furnishings, and beautiful women in all the elegance of fine feathers prescribed by the world's greatest modistes.

There is also a glimpse of New York's "Great White Way" in all its scintillating brilliance and a peek at one of America's great hostesses with the sumptuous appointments that distinguish these modern palaces. Native-born Americans are given a chance to see New York and famous Ellis Island through the immigrant's eyes. A view that promises a thrill to those who have never seen it.

The diversity for locale represented in "Through the Back Door" is said to be one of its best box office features. The par excellence of Charles Rosier's photography, the pleasing and wholly satisfying nature of the story as written by Marion Fairfax and the capable direction by Alfred

"A MODERN SALOME" NOW AT COLUMBIA

Dance of Enticement Will Be Shown on Screen

One of the many interesting episodes in "A Modern Salome," in which Hope Hampton makes her screen debut, and which is distributed through Metro, appearing at the Columbia Theatre for three days, beginning to-day, represents the court of King Herod of ancient times. It is the incident where the notorious Salome does her famous Dance of Enticement at the end of which the monarch offers her whatever she desires as a gift—and she asks for the head of John the Baptist.

This story narrated in the Scriptures, inspired the dramatic poem of "Salome," by Oscar Wilde, and the opera by Richard Strauss. Recollections of the way this famous dance has been performed by various artists is woven into the plot of the picture through a balneation suffered by the heroine, in which she imagines herself to be the famous Salome of old. It is in this incident that she performs the Dance of Enticement.

Theodore Kosloff, the famous Russian ballet-dancer, whose work has been seen on the stage and on the screen, was in charge of the ballet dance, and, in fact, staged this entire episode. When rehearsing the ballet, Kosloff commenced to instruct Miss Hampton in the steps she was to do for the number, but was so struck by her natural grace that he asked her to go through the dance as she conceived it without any suggestions from him.

Bearing in mind the fact that Hope Hampton has never had any terpsichorean training, and that she has never even seen anybody else perform this dance, the fact that the young star won such high praise from an artist like Kosloff is regarded as worthy of note.

JOSEPH BONNET HERE SHORTLY

Some Press Opinions of Great Organist

Some opinions of Joseph Bonnet, who will be heard on the Metropolitan Church organ on December 2, are here reproduced:

"Organ playing takes on a new meaning when such an artist appears. Bonnet is more than a great player; he ought to be an institution."
 —Edward C. Moore, in Chicago Journal.

"Bonnet is the master technician, and he is also an intellectual giant."
 —Music News, Chicago.

"Bonnet's art shows the noblest qualities of his school, an art in playing of rich traditions—its refinement, its fine sense of proportion, its discerning taste. Its keen instinct of color, its strength which does not become mere fury but is the voice of dramatic feeling, an art which preserves the traditions of the church, but also permits the organ to speak with a more widely interpretative voice."
 —Boston Globe.

"Bonnet is not only a great musician and a master of his chosen instrument, he is a genius."
 —Buffalo Express.

supreme artists. His rendering of the Bach fugue awakened the utmost enthusiasm. The wonderful spirit of the man, his artistry and his absolute mastery of the instrument were here revealed in all their wealth. The brilliancy of his playing, and his unbounded virtuosity were heard in their highest expression."
 —Atlanta Journal.

"While not essential to his success, there is no doubt that the fact he played his entire programme without notes added enormously to the unity and clarity of the effect. The toccata and fugue were played with a sublime indifference to their technical difficulties."
 —Oberlin Alumni Magazine.

"Bonnet possesses the art of rhythm in the highest sense. Above all he has magnetism which impresses his hearers with his artistic conception."
 —Le Canada Musical.

WHO'S WHO
In Orchestras of Victoria

THE PRINCESS THEATRE
PART III.
By George J. Dyke.

The Princess Theatre building, situated on Yates Street, was originally built for the A. O. U. W., and with its several anti-rooms, was used for this society's many purposes. About eight years ago it was remodelled for theatre purposes, and became known as the Princess Theatre. From that time it has been identified as a "stock company house," and is, in fact, the only theatre of its kind in Victoria. It has a seating capacity of over 700, and has been used on several occasions by the Red Cross and Victoria's Dramatic Societies. The Princess has always maintained an orchestra, and its manageress, Miss M. F. MacDonald, has been ever eager and desirous in upholding the orchestra's efficiency.

Benedict Bantley. Its present leader is Benedict Bantley, born in California, U. S. A., he came with his parents to this city in 1883, when even in those early days there lived many capable and experienced musicians. He commenced his music studies under Henri Strass and Victor Austin. In 1902 he went to Europe, where he studied at the Royal Conservatory of Music, graduating four years later. His masters on the violin and piano were Prof. Arno Hill and Herr Josef Penabaz, both widely known teachers in Germany. He studied also harmony, counterpoint and instrumentation with other well-known teachers, and for one season was violinist in an orchestra under the famous conductor Arthur Nikisch. Returning to Victoria, Mr. Bantley became busily engaged in the music affairs of the city, and soon got together a large class of pupils. He has been organist for many years of St. Andrew's (R.C.), Cathedral, and has led orchestras on many occasions. He is also leader of the Rotary Club orchestra. He has published several songs, piano studies, a mass for four voices and organ, and his publication on scales and arpeggios with the title "A Simple Treatise," etc., is enjoying a steady sale. He has in MSS. for future circulation a "Practical Modulation" system.

Henry Morley. The cellist is Henry Morley, a recent arrival to the city from Vancouver, where he played in Mr. Frederick W. Dyke's orchestra at the Hotel Vancouver for over thirteen months. For some time he was cellist at the Fort Garry Hotel, Winnipeg, and was with the Eckhart Stock Company, at Edmonton, and for seven years was a member of the Empire Theatre in that historic musical city of Alberta. Born in Leeds, England, he entered when a young lad the Leeds College of Music, and received his cello tuition under his father, one of the best known musicians in the Midlands and North of England. Mr. Morley came to this country in 1906, and first settled in Winnipeg.

George H. E. Green. Is the cornet player of the orchestra, and first saw the light of day in Sheffield, the home of so many of England's best musicians. He came to Canada many years ago, going direct to Winnipeg, and after a short sojourn in the big central city went to Sydney, where he became cornet soloist of the 2nd Batt. Military Band of Australia. Returning to Victoria, he studied for eleven years with his father, an excellent and experienced musician, of this city. Mr. Green has a lovely tone, and has had many tempting offers by band organizations. He is cornet soloist and deputy bandmaster of the 16th Canadian Scottish Band of this city, and was also first cornet of the "Foundation," when that excellent organization was in existence during the war.

Bert Gals. The pianist studied piano in this city, obtaining many McGill University certificates. He has held several positions in the leading theatres of Calgary, and was with the C. E. forces, playing with the 88th Batt. Band and in the 3rd Pioneers.

Fred Dorr. Is the drummer of much experience, he has held positions in the leading theatres of the Northwest. He is an artist on the "bells," and a tympani player of first rank. His

HEIFETZ'S VIOLIN RECITAL POPULAR

Many Will Hear Delightful Entertainment

Many Victoria citizens and many from Vancouver will pay homage to Jascha Heifetz when he appears with his violin at the Royal Victoria Theatre next Monday evening. Already Manager Clifford Denham, of the Royal Victoria Theatre reports a heavy call of seat reservations for the Heifetz concert, and this is not surprising when one learns of the tremendous ovations accorded Jascha Heifetz wherever he has appeared. In this respect two telegrams recently received are of especial interest. From Portland comes the news dated November 18: Mrs. Jessie Ricardo, care of Fletcher Bros., Victoria, B. C.: Wonderful Heifetz concert Wednesday night. Turned hundreds away and on account of the great demand Heifetz will give a return recital here next Wednesday evening.

STEEERS AND COMAN. From Spokane on the 19th the wires tell of a similar success. Mrs. Jessie Ricardo, care of Fletcher Bros., Victoria, B. C.:

Tremendous ovation given Heifetz here last night. House packed beyond capacity. Seats sold on stage and orchestra pit; many turned away without seats; artist played surpassingly.

SPOKANE SYMPHONY SOCIETY. Sold out houses have been the rule since this famous artist began his present tour, the number of his auditors being limited only to the size of the auditoriums in which he appears. Although the world has known many great artists who were masters of the violin, it is a debatable question whether ever in one man were combined so many qualities of su-

Rev. Dr. Sipprell Will Speak on Interesting Subject Next Tuesday Night.

It is expected that the Metropolitan Methodist Church will be well filled to-morrow evening when the Pastor, Rev. Dr. Sipprell gives his illustrated lecture on "Where Canada's Heroes Fought and Fell." The lecture will begin at 8.15 o'clock.

The lecture is bound to prove attracting, interesting and educational. The topic is an appealing one, and when it is considered that Dr. Sipprell proposes to deal with several other subjects as well as the sacred territory in France and Belgium, where Canadian soldiers sleep, the speaker is almost certain to face a packed house.

"HUNGRY HEARTS"

Helen Ferguson has been chosen for the leading role in Anzia Yezierska's "Hungry Hearts" which E. Mason Hopper is directing for Goldwyn. Bryant Washburn has the leading man's role. Miss Ferguson has appeared in "Madame X," "Going Some," "Burning Daylight," "The Mutiny of the Elsinore" and recently played in the screen version of Miss Lulu Bett under William De Mille. Rose Rosener arrived at the studios on Wednesday to act the role of the mother in "Hungry Hearts."

"Flowers of the North," the new Vitagraph special production by James Oliver Curwood, is a gem scenically as well as being a thrilling play. Lofty mountains, with their snow-capped peaks; deep valleys with mirror-like lakes; countless waterfalls, rapids and portages, forests and Indian villages are presented as backgrounds in almost cyclamic effect. The picture was filmed in the mountains of Northern California—and in the Canadian Northwest, the land Mr. Curwood knows so well.

"No matter what I should say about Tanic, it wouldn't be half good enough," said Mrs. Mary Wilhelm, 216 Mint Way, South Side, Pittsburg, Pa.

"I never dreamed it possible for a medicine to restore me to the splendid health I now enjoy. In fact, I had almost resigned myself to being an invalid, as I could see I was losing weight and strength every day, and no relief was in sight. For three years stomach trouble, headaches and nervousness made my life miserable.

Toronto, Ont.—I suffered with irregular periods and was weak and run-down, could not eat and had headaches. The worst symptoms were dragging down pains, so bad I sometimes thought I would go crazy and I seemed to be smothering. I was in this condition for two or three years and could not see to work. I tried all kinds of medicines and had been treated by physicians but received no benefit. I found one of your booklets and felt inclined to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Five Children Have Appendicitis

Entire Family Is Stricken With Appendicitis

James Mullen, a Minnesota farmer, according to reports published in a local newspaper, has had five members of his family operated for appendicitis within the past year. His wife's father died of appendicitis.

A Treacherous Disease. Appendicitis attacks at any moment even persons seemingly in good health. Usually, however, it is preceded by so-called stomach trouble, constipation or similar disturbances. Often when there is a warning feeling of uneasiness in the abdomen, appendicitis can be guarded against in exactly the same manner in which one guards against the spread of throat infection, because that is just what appendicitis is—an infection in the intestines spreading to the appendix. When one has some trouble, one can often prevent further trouble and the development of influenza or grippe, by using an antiseptic wash or gargle to fight the germs and a laxative to carry off the poisons from the body. Just exactly the same procedure is necessary to fight the intestinal germs and guard against appendicitis. But instead of an antiseptic wash or gargle, one should use an intestinal antiseptic.

Intestinal Antiseptic. There is now offered to the public a preparation having the powerful action of an intestinal antiseptic and a COLE-PLIFFE system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adierika, acts as follows: It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here. It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowel and removing foul matter which poisoned the system for months and which nothing but a laxative could dislodge. It brings out all poisons, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is also the most powerful amount of poisonous matter Adierika draws from the alimentary canal—matter you never thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more foul matter it brings out which such an occasional constipation, sour stomach, gas on the stomach and sick headache, one spoonful Adierika ALWAYS brings relief. A longer treatment, however, is necessary in cases of obstinate constipation and long standing stomach trouble, preferably under direction of your physician.

Reports From Physicians. "I congratulate you on the good effect I had from Adierika since I prescribed it." (Signed) Dr. L. Langlois. "I found nothing in my 50 years practice to equal Adierika." (Signed) Dr. James Weaver. "Adierika is a constant surprise to people who have used only ordinary bowel and stomach medicines, on account of its rapid, pleasant and COMPLETE action." It is sold by leading druggists everywhere.

Sold in Victoria by W. M. Ivel, Druggist, Douglas and View Streets, and other leading druggists.

He was a very patient and long-suffering young man, but when at last she arrived at the corner where they had arranged to meet, he ventured a remonstrance. "During, you are late," he said, mildly. "Only a few minutes," she pro-

TRY one down-town, at your restaurant or lunch counter, after a hard morning's work and you are tired.

First note how luscious, then how it "sets you up."

A glass of milk is all you need with this pie for a good light lunch.

For the raisins furnish 1,500 calories of energizing nutriment per pound.

Their nutrition, being in practically pre-digested form, gets to work at once, and you can feel the energy it imparts.

The iron in the raisins then builds up the blood and promotes a vigor that is permanent. You need but a small bit of iron daily, yet that need is vital. Get it from raisins.

There's a recipe here for your wife to try at home. Or ask for pie like this down-town today.

BLISS CARMAN

Canada's Premier Poet, Who Will Visit Here Shortly

HOW HE CAME TO WRITE SKETCH OF HIS CAREER.

Bliss Carman, the famous Canadian poet, will give commentaries and readings to the Women's Canadian Club members and general public to-morrow week, November 29. He will reach Vancouver to-morrow. He has written so much beautiful verse that it is of particular interest to read what the poet himself says of his first pursuit of the verse, or what he calls "My Escape Into Poetry." This is how he describes it:

"When Charles Roberts occupied the chair of English in King's College, Windsor, Nova Scotia, I was one of the foreign examiners in his subject and a frequent visitor at his home. Windsor is not far from Grand Pre, and I spent many happy vacations in the lovely Evangeline country. Of all the places I have known, none is more enchanting in its peaceful and unspoiled serenity than Grand Pre was in those years. In that beautiful land of great trees and wide meadows and comfortable quiet homes among miles of orchards, there was always something magical and charming which touched one with content and gladness. Or perhaps it is only because we were young and happy, that the place must seem forever blessed.

"That was when I was beginning to write verses, and the lines called 'Low Tide on Grand Pre' were composed in one of those Summers. The Autumn of 1886 I went to Harvard where I was to have a couple of years of post-graduate work in English literature, but the notion of writing verse had been strong enough to survive. I was too interested in the brilliant Harvard philologists to be wholly engrossed in English letters; as one would have to be, to be a scholar and teacher. And then too writing began to be interesting. I sent the Grand Pre poem to 'The Atlantic' and it was accepted by T. B. Aldrich. Also an opening presented itself for editorial work in New York. I went to a desk in the old Independent office early in 1890. The first edition of 'Low Tide on Grand Pre' and other lyrics appeared not very long afterward, and that was the end of professional ambitions.

An excellent review of the works and life of Bliss Carman appears in the pen of 'Lucian' in 'The Vancouver Province,' which says in part: "In the last half of this month our province is to have an eminent visitor. The poet who, by almost general consent of his peers, is adjudged the laureate of Canada, will be with us. Bliss Carman has already reached the prairies, perhaps a little too late to see them at their best, and will continue to the ocean, making his first Canadian transcontinental journey. "The parting guest was speeded (as he sped?) on his way by a banquet at Montreal, given by the Canadian Society of Authors, whose officers and leading members, with the women's university clubs, have induced him to make this tour. Thousands of friends will make his personal acquaintance, and hear some of his lyrics in his own voice.

Two years ago there was little hope among the friends and associates of Bliss Carman that he would ever such a journey as this. He was at Saranac Lake making a brave flight for his life. With encouragement from comrades near and far, he fought with a stout heart the unrelenting battle over the weakness of the body. One thing made the discipline less oppressive to him than it would have been to most city dwellers. To Bliss Carman the outdoor life was a natural life. Tree, shrub and flower, bird, beast and other things that live in the open had been his society from his youth. He found at a time when he needed most to know it that nature never yet betrayed the heart that loved her."

Some friends of his have among their prized possessions an intimate poem which tells of life in the Saranac woods, a record of primitive and healing experience, expressed with a poet's sensibility and a nature poet's reserve. The testimony which Bliss Carman has given in a hundred lyrics during thirty years to the life of the outdoors, that he can now reaffirm from a larger and graver experience.

His Early Career.

The reference is to the circumstance that Carman had matriculated at the University of New Brunswick, with the highest matriculation scholarship. At 17, he was beginning the college course—while Roberts at 18 was entering upon his matriculating year. "That wise master" is now known as Sir George Parkin, who was for fifteen years principal of the Fredericton Collegiate school. At the time this was written Parkin was thirty-two, and only a few years back from Oxford University. The ardent New Brunswicker, to whose enthusiasm Lord Milner attributed his own conversion to Imperialism during their Oxford days, whose influence in the ancient university was publicly acknowledged by Mr. Aquith, left a strong impression on his students in the Collegiate, among whom were the Roberts brothers and their two cousins. In the same class with Roberts was Douglas Hazen, some time Premier of the province, federal minister of marine, and now chief justice. He also testifies to the wise master's influence.

Carman came out of the university gold medalist, and proceeded to Edinburgh and Harvard. By all the family traditions on both sides he should have become a lawyer, but the law, and for two years he followed the tradition. It may have been the lure of an outdoor life which led him off to engineering. That gave him the freedom of much scenery. Like his cousin, he turned to teaching for immediate subsistence since it was necessary to earn a living. At twenty-nine Bliss Carman found his occupation in literary journalism as one of the editors of the New York Independent. He was also with 'The Atlantic Monthly' and the 'Cosmopolitan,' and other magazines. I take it that the unique little magazine called the 'Chap Book,' published in Chicago was his own literary venture, and mostly his own creation.

Roberts published his first book when he was twenty, about the age in which Byron and Tennyson appeared as authors. His cousin was not precocious. Carman was thirty-two when 'Low Tide on Grand Pre' appeared. By that time he had undergone much spiritual experience and had served what Goethe would have called an apprenticeship. A comparison of early poems of Roberts with those of Carman shows a wide difference.

The Tantramar river is one of the tide streams which flow into one branch of the Bay of Fundy. The Casperses, the Habibis, and several rivers enter another fork of the Bay near Grand Pre. They present some of the same phenomena. When we read Roberts' "Tantramar Revisited," we have a true picture of the marshes at low and low tide, and we find it again in the introduction to his famous Shelley ode. We see what Roberts saw, and some of the things that never were. But in Carman's "Low Tide in Grand Pre" what

We see in the state of the tide in the soul of the poet. No one could tell by this record what Grand Pre looks like, but one may vaguely and delightfully yet half sadly guess how the poet feels about it and other things. Famous Poem.

If Bliss Carman does not write best selling poetry like the Songs of a Sourdough, he has given us straight-forward verse that the plain man may enjoy. Take his Ode on the Coronation of King Edward. I think that poem and one other Imperial lyric deserve to be known to all Canadians. The other is Wilfred Campbell's "England." Open Carman's Ode in the middle and read—

What people are these passing to the sound of pipes and drums,
In the garments of all nations, and singing as they come?
By the color on the cheek,
By the faintest shadow of a smile,
They are foreign-born and alien, and their homes are far to seek,
But they all come up to England when England calls them home.

And these who speak the English tongue not in the English way,
With careless mien and temper self-assured, what are they?
By the larger, looser stride,
By the ampler ease and pride,
By the quicker catch at laughter, and Where the faintest shadow leads,
They were bred beneath the tent cloth of a wider, whiter day.

From the rough red ridges of Fundy where the ships go far inland—
To Kamloops, where the hills are set as at a council grand—
From the waving northern light At the edge of polar night,
To the inland seas that sparkle where goodly orchards stand.

By prairies swale and barren, by jungle and lagoon,
Where endless palm trees rustle, and crowsy breakers croon,
By desert and morass,
In snows like stinging lashes, on seas like burning glass,
By every land and water beneath the great lone moon.

Our fathers died for England at the outpost of the world;
Our mothers toiled for England where the settlers' smoke upreared;
By packet, stream, and rail,
By portage, trek and trail,
They bore a thing called honor in hearts that did not quail,
Till the twelve great winds of heaven saw their scarlet sign unfurled.

The writings of Bliss Carman in the twenty-three years between 1893 and 1916 are included in the bibliographies under thirty-two titles. Some of these, like the Coronation Ode, are single poems, in thin books. Nearly the whole of the first twenty volumes of poetry are contained in the collection of two volumes published in 1916.

Six or more of the titles are of prose works, chiefly essays and criticism. If these papers were printed in a single collection it would not make a very large book and it would but why Under-Clothing?

Because clothing is made to cover the body and is worn for decency, appearance and comfort. Above all, under-clothing is worn for protection against chills, cold and dampness, and to absorb the natural moisture from the body. Under-wear might mean any kind of "wear" and does not necessarily fulfil all the above mentioned functions.

Turnbull's UNDER-CLOTHING

When seeking comfort look for one of these Trade-Marks—and get it.

Introduce the poet in a light unfamiliar to most of his readers who think of him only as a poet. He should be known also as a polished, incisive and engaging essayist. In this guise he has fits of severity, but it is such clever and unassuming reflection as not to leave unpleasant memories.

It is daring adventure and the Canadian did not go forth in vain. I do not think that Matthew Arnold would have discarded lines like these:

Shall they then never behold thee,
Nevermore see thee returning,
Down the blue cleft of the mountains,
Nor in the purple of evening
Welcome thy coming?
Youth with their ardour nor cherish
With loving longing, thy spirit,
Nor with soft laughter beguile thee,
O Lityeres?
This will do for quotations, except a fragment of the simple song that tells of the lure of the road:

The glamor of the open door
Is on me and I would begone,
Speak with truth or speak no more,
House with beauty or with none.

Few enough have been my needs,
Fewer now they are to be,
Where the faintest shadow leads,
There is heart's content for me.

Leave the bread upon the board,
Leave the book beside the chair,
With the murmur of the forest,
Light of spirit I shall fare.

Leave the lute-string in the door,
And the pile of logs to burn;
Others may be here before,
I have leisure to return.

AN AUTHENTIC POET.

When Bliss Carman reaches this Coast, we shall assuredly have an authentic poet with us. Montreal, in courtly ceremony, crowned him with a wreath of maple leaves. In some way we shall give him recognition to show that he belongs to all Canada. I have said that he is a poet's poet. So it was proved when the word of his late illness went out from friend to friend.

Then from men and women, whose names are familiar in the world of letters, the testimony was given of the hold he had upon their affection. The visit of Mr. Bliss Carman coincides with Canadian book-week. On that week, the shops will show conspicuously the works of Canadian authors. I hope that not only the books published this year and last year, but those of other dates will be available, and that buyers making preparations for Christmas will introduce to their friends and families some of the literature of their own country. One would like to think that booksellers would not make a great mistake by ordering a number of copies of the collected editions of Bliss Carman's poems.

DON'T NEGLECT BRONCHITIS

The principal symptom of bronchitis is a cough which is dry, harsh and hacking, accompanied with rapid wheezing, and a feeling of tightness through the chest.

There is a raising of phlegm, especially in the morning after rising from bed. This phlegm is at first of a light color, but as the trouble progresses it becomes of a yellowish or greenish color, and is sometimes streaked with blood.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

You will find a remedy that will stimulate the weakened bronchial organs, subdue the inflammation, soothe the irritated parts, loosen the phlegm and mucous, and help nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulation.

Mr. John H. Root, 40 Maple Ave., Hamilton, Ont., writes:—"I was troubled with bronchitis and had a very bad cough. I had it so long I was beginning to get afraid of other developments. I tried all kinds of cough remedies without relief. I was advised by a friend to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, so I got a bottle, and it convinced me to believe that I had at last gotten the right medicine. I used several bottles and am now practically well. I have recommended it to others since, and good results followed."

Be sure and get "Dr. Wood's" when you ask for it. Put up only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont. (Adv.)

CANADIAN AUTHORS' WEEK NOW IN PROGRESS HERE

Arthur Stringer Tells Amusingly How He Began

Arthur Stringer, the author of so many vividly readable novels, not least known among which are "The Prairie Wife," and its sequel, "The Prairie Mother," among the most popular of Canadian writers. His name will be specially associated in the public mind with the observation of "Canadian Authors' Week" which is now in progress. It is therefore interesting to read what he says here of his maiden effort as an author, that is to say, my initial contribution to public and permanent literature, was both a maiden one and an initial one in a double-edged sense of the word. For when a certain new pickle factory was being erected on the outskirts of a certain suburb where I once dug pirate caves and ate inadequately fricassed crawfish and had my being, I happened to be prematurely but profoundly and incommensurably in love. So to ease that ache which had rather bewilderingly transferred itself from a more or less settled abode in the digestive organs to an entirely new position in the organ of circulation, I proceeded, quite unobserved by the workmen, to inscribe on an exposed portion of their still impressionable cement-work, a statement which impressed me, at the time, as being as monumental as it was axiomatic.

"Within a large and deeply articulated heart I wrote on that still receptive concrete 'A.S. Loves C.W.' and in doing so I achieve a consciousness, not only of the permanence of the written word, but also of one indecipherable mutability of the feminine mind. For the lady in question, for reasons best known to herself and her sex, took umbrage at this public advertisement of a relationship so essentially personal, and a prompt but unmistakable coolness grew up between us. We no longer surreptitiously perused a common copy of 'The Swiss Family Robinson,' and we no longer shared the same raspberry-and-all-day sucker. That quite indignant Mistress Cherry since changed her name and is now the mother of five equally devastating and equally charming daughters. I think I am free to disclose to the world what always seemed to me an especially alluring and colorful souiquette gave me the mitten, in fact, and took up with one Benny Winter, who chanced to be possessor of a new brand of bicycle (then somewhat contemptuously known as a 'safety'), which could be ridden with equal ease by a member of either sex.

But year after year that essentially autobiographical acknowledgment and those initials so touchingly enclosed in the same heart served to bring him to mind both the irony of human destiny and the solemnity of ever committing to enduring form the acknowledgment of an emotion which cannot be identified as permanent. I have written many since then, and have seen time commit them to the four winds of oblivion. But so long as that pickle factory stands I shall not be altogether unknown to the world."

Local Interest.

Great public interest is being shown in the effort epitomized in Canadian Authors' Week to stimulate the growth of an intrinsically Canadian literature, which is making its first steps toward an increasing extent every year. A lecture with lantern slides will be given during the week, among other fixtures arranged, where there is no doubt, the renewed interest in Canadian men and women of letters will insure a large attendance.

APIARISTS TO PAY NO MORE FEES

Fees charged beekeepers have not proved satisfactory and are being eliminated through amendments to the Apiary Act introduced in the Legislature by the Hon. E. D. Barrow, Minister of Agriculture.

Inspection work will be curtailed and expenses cut down, but beekeepers who suspect foul brood will be able to ship a section to the department where there is no doubt, Experts will give free lectures, however, to spread knowledge of the industry.

Mr. Barrow said there are now 2,072 apiaries in the Province, and 10,329 bees. The total crop for 1921 was 399,674 pounds worth at the wholesale price of 22 cents, $87,932.

F. A. Pauline, J. W. Jones and Thomas Menzies also spoke on the bill. Mr. Menzies urged that pack-ages used in transporting bees from one section to another be prohibited from being used a second time.
